Chartered in February of 1960, the North Carolina National Guard Association (NCNGA) is a tax-exempt, nonprofit corporation governed by an elected Executive Council whose members are voted in annually.

The objective of the NCNGA is to seek and support programs that are beneficial to the members of the North Carolina National Guard. The Association also promotes the public relations with North Carolina Army and Air National Guard and their communities while developing friendship, understanding, and cooperation between the active armed forces and all reserve components. The general membership is comprised of current and former members of the North Carolina National Guard. Current Association Membership is over 16,000.
